WINE TASTING TO BENEFIT CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY

The Children's Home Society (CHS) of New Jersey will sponsor a wine tasting presented by Wine Legend of Livingston on Monday, October 23. The event will take place from 6 to 10 p.m. at the Manor in West Orange, and will feature more than 250 different wines as well as scotch tasting. The evening will also include hors d'oeuvres and a dinner buffet.

Proceeds will benefit the Children's Home Society, 112 year old, non-profit organization "dedicated to saving lives and building healthy families."

Tickets may be purchased at Wine Legend, 277 Eisenhower Parkway, or online at www.chsofnj.org. For more information, call CHS of NJ at 609-695-6274, extension 153.

Founded in 1894, The Children's Home Society of New Jersey aids at-risk infants, children, youth and families by protecting abused or neglected infants and children, and providing adoption services.

Attorney Stacey L. Meisel, a founding partner of the Livingston law firm Becker Meisel LLC, will serve as chairwoman of the Grand Wine Tasting. A member of the board of directors of CHS of NJ, Meisel also serves on their nominating and advocacy committees.
